Is it really true that Greensboro had to draw an outside territory to fill that auditorium?

If all the candidates are as sanguine as they pretend to be what a shock some of them will receive on November 3rd.

We don't believe the Hearst party representatives succeeded on Wednesday night in breaking the Democratic majority in New Hanover.

Of course all the fairs in the State this Fall are the best ever held. Who ever attended one that did not beat the record?

Of course the trust magnates have been given a hint that there is a "side door" to Republican national headquarters.

We hope the college boys and their friends who come in tonight for the football game tomorrow will have a good time while in our city.

Republicans deny that there will be a "two-man" Government if Taft is elected. Granted; but who will be the one man—Taft or Roosevelt?

It is said Greensboro's auditorium is not large enough; but then she will have plenty of time to enlarge it by the next centennial.

Wonder if Taft will remember that his speech in Greensboro tomorrow will be made to the same crowd to which he spoke there two years ago?

The "sick man of Europe" is on the operating table again, says an exchange. Well, he has been put there so often that he has gotten used to it.

The New York Times shut up so suddenly about the genuineness of that Cleveland letter that one is forced to believe it became convinced that it was a forgery.

Had the Republicans been aware of the real sentiment in the Middle West they would have started a vigorous campaign there much earlier. This is one time when they were caught napping.

The Republicans expected Roosevelt's name to help them to elect his man Taft, but they did not count on the damage he was going to do the cause by his intemperate language and excentric conduct.

Such terms a "Gold Democrat" and "Cleveland Democrat" now belong to ancient history. There are no such men in politics now. All Democrats are of one class—supporters of the nominees of the party.

—Observers of the situation in the Near East have been struck by the peculiar quietness of Russia. She is having practically nothing to say, and seems to be willing to permit Austria-Hungary and even little Greece do pretty much as they please. A few years back, under similar conditions, Russia would have been making a terrible row and causing all Europe to shudder. But Russia seems to have been thoroughly cowed by the sound trouncing that Japan gave her.—Savannah News.

TERM NEARING END

PROCEEDINGS YESTERDAY

Verdict for Plaintiff in Horse Trade Case—Verdict for Railroad in Suit of Z. W. Whitehead Against Coast Line.

With the term nearing an end and at least half a day required for calling the motion docket, no more important cases will be taken up in the Superior Court this week. It was expected that the $10,000 damage suit of Capt. J. A. Burriss against the City of Wilmington would be taken up yesterday, but it was finally decided in view of the fact that the hearing would require perhaps two days or longer, not to try it at this term at all.

Today in court will be taken up with the trial of unimportant cases and tomorrow the motion docket will be called, according to the present outlook. Yesterday a part of the forenoon session was taken up with a completion of the case of Walter Sneeden against Ralph Kennedy, involving a horse and jackass trade. A verdict was rendered for the plaintiff, who recovers the jackass and the costs of the action, amounting to much more than the original amount in controversy. Yesterday afternoon Woodus Kellum, Esq., of counsel for the defense in the case, made a motion to set the verdict aside and grant a new trial, but the motion was overruled and Mr. Kellum gave notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court. Hon. John D. Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, Esq., appear for the plaintiff and Walter P. Gafford, Esq., for the defendant.

The greater part of the remainedr of the court session yesterday was taken with the hearing of a suit brought by Z. W. Whitehead against the Atlantic Coast Line for the value of a car load of wood which he refused to take some time ago because it was not delivered as he requested on a siding, the same having been later sold to satisfy the demurrage charges by the Car Service Association. J. O. Carr, Esq., represented the plaintiff and Messrs. Davis and Davis, the defendant railroad company. The jury retired with the case during the afternoon and returned a verdict at 6 o'clock yesterday evening, after the recess of court, in favor of the railroad company. The jury was composed as follows: J. Fred Russ, Forrest Padrick, J. A. Northam, H. T. Duls, C. E. Moss, H. W. Howard, R. S. Pridgen, Ralph Kennedy, H. E. Phillips R. L. Johnson, G. H. Rogers, E. T. Malpass.

Other cases disposed of yesterday were as follows: Fred Fear & Co., against J. C. Stevenson Co., non suit; Standard Chain Co., against Cape Fear Lumber Co., judgment by default for $1,562.13.

Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Hon. John D. Bellamy, counsel for the defendants in the case of Sloan & Sweeney against Miss Etta Hart and others in which judgment was given the day before for the plaintiffs, yesterday afternoon made a motion to set the verdict aside on the ground that it was inconsistent in the measure of damages awarded with the charge of His Honor. The motion was resisted by Robert Ruark, Esq., counsel for the plaintiffs and Judge Lyon stated that he would reserve his decision in the matter. It is more than likely that the case will go to the Supreme Court in the event of a decision either way.

Locates in Charlotte.

The Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday has the following: "Mr. John Calvert, of this city, who for several years was connected with the law department of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway at Wilmington, and read law at the University of North Carolina, having received his license to practice law at the beginning of the present session of the Supreme court, has located in Charlotte, occupying an office in the suite of law offices of Tillett and Guthrie, leading lawyers of Charlotte. Mr. Calvert is well and favorably known in Raleigh, with many friends throughout the State. He is a young man of winning parts, strong character and great ability, and will doubtless achieve distinction in the practice of the law."

IN YELLOW AND WHITE

Beautiful Church Wedding in Which Miss Hazel May Dushan Becomes Bride of Mr. John Utley King. Tour North.

Grace Methodist Church, clad in a wealth of beautiful decorations on the interior, brilliantly lighted by myriads of incandescents and thronged with many admiring friends and relatives, was a scene of rare beauty and elegance at half after six o'clock yesterday evening when Mr. John Utley King, a popular young Wilmingtonian, led to the altar Miss Hazel May Dushan, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dushan and they were made man and wife in an impressive ceremony performed by the pastor of the congregation, the Rev. T. A. Smoot.

The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Mattie L. Chasten and for some time before the hour announced for the ceremony friends were assembling and a number of musical selections appropriate to the occasion were skilfully rendered. The church was decorated acording to a color scheme of yellow and white and these were the colors of the wedding, golden rods predominating in the various features of the general scheme. Pretty ferns, Southern smilax and potted plants also entered into the tasteful arrangement at the altar which was softly lighted by many wax tapers in handsomely burnished candelabra.

The wedding party consisted of Miss Elizabeth Schulken, maid of honor; Miss Agnes Chasten, bridesmaid; Mr. J. Thomas King, a brother of the groom, best man; Messrs. J. C. Douglass, C. K. Davis, R. A. King and Lacy King, groomsmen. The ushers or groomsmen entered by twos followed by the maid of honor, the bridesmaid and the bride upon the arm of her father, Mr. Dushan. She was met at the altar by the groom, who entered with his best man from the Sunday School room to the right. The ensemble at the altar made a picture of great beauty and the words as spoken by the pastor were impressive and according to the beautiful marriage rites of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The bride was gowned in a becoming traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and carried an exquisite bouquet of bride's roses and Lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was prettily attired in white over yellow silk while the bridesmaid was simarly gowned, each carrying large yellow crysanthemums.

Folowing the ceremony the bride and groom were accompanied to the station by members of the bridal party and a host of friends and were showered with best wishes upon the departure of the northbound Atlantic Coast Line train on which they left at 7 o'clock for a bridal tour North including visits to Washington, New York, Providence and other places of interest. They will return to the city and after November 1st will be at home to friends at the suburban home of the bride's parents, "The Maples," near the city.

The bride and groom are among the most popular young people in their large circle of friends and acquaintances here. Mr. King is chief bookkeeper in the purchasing department of the Atlantic Coast Line in Wilmington and is held in the highest esteem by all who know him. The bride is a young lady of attractive personality and many charms of manner and dispostion. Both will be cordially welcomed upon their return.

A large number of very handsome wedding gifts were on display at an ante-nuptial reception given earlier in the week.

NEW PUMPING PLANT

Installed by Atlantic Coast Line—In Operation Soon.

The modern new pumping plant, with a capacity of 200,000 gallons of water a day, recently installed by the Atlantic Coast Line at Smith's Creek, will begin operations next Saturday. The work of placing the pumping station in readiness has been going on for some time under the direction of the roadway department of the railroad, superintended by Mr. L. R. Braswell, of Florence, S. C. The pumping station is equipped with a gasolene engine of 25-horse power and it is probable that another of the same capacity will be placed soon.

The new plant will supply the two enormous tanks, which are situated, one at the "Y" and the other near the offices, with 200,000 gallons of water in 12 hours. The station has been installed for the purpose of supplying the Coast Line offices here, and will materially reduce the company's expense obtaining a water supply. It will also provide water for the boilers of the engines on the yards here and running out of Wilmington.

Fall Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The Woman's Auxiliary and Social Committee of the Y. M. C. A. have completed all arangements for the Fall reception to be held this evening. The programme wil commence with a gymnasium drill under the direction of Dr. F. W. Burkhardt. This will be followed with a musical programme in the lobby and parlors. Brief addresses will be made by Dr. Akerman, the president, and Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells. Refreshments will be served by the Auxiliary and a most cordial invitation is extended to the public.

CROWDS AT THE FAIR

Raleigh Thronged With People For Annual Gathering From All Over The State.

THE AWARDS FOR EXHIBITS

Descendants of Signers of Declaration of Independence Organize. Equipment for National Guard Other Capital News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 15,—One of the greatest crowds that ever gathered here for a State Fair, barring the years when President Roosevelt and William Jennings Bryan were special attractions poured in today from every part of the State and Thursday, always the big day of the Fair, was a success in every way.

A big parade decorated automobiles and other vehicles with more than a hundred marshals in line moved through the city to the Fair grounds at 11 o'clock. There were successful flights of the Strobel air ship twice during the day, the races were exciting and of absorbing interest and the Fair was one surging mass of good humored humanity.

The festivities of the day culminated tonight in a brilliant leap year ball given by the lady marshals of the fair complimentary to the chief marshal, Thomas O'Berry and his hundred and more aides.

A good start has been made in the work of making the awards for exhibits at the Fair. The first prize for best county exhibit went to Wake with Alamance second and Haywood third. The fruit exhibit by Haywood county was conceded to be far superior to any other North Carolina exhibit but fruit only counts, under the rules, 15 per cent while agriculture counts 60 per cent. The agricultural exhibits from Wake and Alamance excelled. The award for the best general farm exhibit went to J. W. Perry, of Chatham county. The award for the best mountain farm exhibit went to B. P. Howell, of Haywood county, who installed the general Haywood exhibit so admirably.

The North Carolina Branch of Descendants of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence was organized here today to affiliate with the National organization. James Hooper, of Wilmington, was elected State president and Mrs. Helen DeBerners Willis, of Raleigh and Mrs. Amelia J. Hellechampe, of High Point, were elected respectively vice-president and secretary-treasurer. It was decided to hold a meeting next May in Greensboro.

The details of the arrangement for securing from the War department equipment for shooting galleries for each of the companies of North Carolina Guard are nearly worked out and the galleries will be installed in the near future. The government furnishes the rifles and the targets. Olive drab uniforms are soon to be issued to the companies of the Guard.

Practically all the State offices were closed today on account of the State Fair, Thursday being always a sort of holiday in Raleigh for Fair week.

In spite of his protest, J. H. Currie of Cumberland county, was re-elected president of the North Carolina Society tonight, and along with Secretary J. E. Pogue, Treasurer C. B. Denson was tendered a vote of thanks for the big success of the 48th annual State fair just closing here. Both Pogue and Denson were re-elected. Major W. A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, was elected vice president at large, this being an office not heretofore existing. Reports showed the present State Fair highly successful.

Major J. M. Crenshaw, the oldest member of the Association, was present, this being his 41st annual meeting without missing a single one. He is 87 years old. A rising vote of congratulations was tendered him.

Big German Steamer Cleared.

The German steamer Adelheid Menzell, Captain Menzel, having a carrying capacity of 3,200 tons and the second largest steamer that ever came to this port, cleared yesterday for Fernandina, Fla., where she will receive a cargo and proceed to foreign markets. The Menzell brought cargo of kainit here for the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company. This was her maiden voyage across the sea, having been recently completed at the shipyards at Hamburg, Germany.

L'AGILE GERMAN CLUB.

Held First Meeting of Season—Officers Were Elected.

L'Agile German Club held the first meeting of the season Wednesday night and officers for the ensuing year were elected and other business matters in connection with the season attended to. The first german will be held on the evening of November 2th.

The officers elected are as follows: Mr. J. N. Huske, Jr., president; Mr. E. P. Bailey, Jr., vice-president; Mr. Ernest F. Peschau, secretary and treasurer, and the governing board as follows: Messrs. Markley Croswell, R. C. James, P. L. Cantwell and W. P. Emerson.

GRAND GROVE OF DRUIDS

Instituted Under Most Favorable Auspices by Supreme Arch Winkler Last Night—Officers Elected and Social Session.

Under the most favorable auspices the Grand Grove, United Ancient Order of Druids of North Carolina, was instituted last evening in this city by Supreme Arch Emil Winkler, of Troy, N. Y., who is in Wilmington on his way to attend the Supreme Grove in New Orleans on the 20th of the present month. The meeting last night was well attended and most enthusiastic.

The Grand Grove is formed of Linden, Myrtle and Olive Groves, of this city; Lackey Grove, of Hamlet, and Elm Grove, of Newbern, representatives of which were present for the installation exercises last evening. The meeting was called to order by State Deputy Frank Meir and the Supreme Arch was asked to preside, which he did in an able and splendid manner. After the ceremonies of installation the Grand Officers were elected as follows:

Junior Past Grand Noble Arch—Frank P. Meir, of Wilmington.
Noble Grand Arch—W. C. Armstrong, of Wilmington.
Deputy Grand Arch—G. W. Pillow, of Hamlet.
Grand Secretary—H. E. Bonitz, of Wilmington.
Grand Treasurer—W. E. Yopp, of Wilmington.
Grand Marshal—R. A. Lackey, of Hamlet.
Grand Herald—E. J. W. Anders, of Wilmington.
Grand Sentinel—Jas. M. Rafferty, of Wilmington.
Grand Trustees—G. W. Linder, O. A. Lackey and H. C. Thompson.
Supreme Representative—Frank P. Meir, of Wilmington.

There were many Past Arches in attendance and after the formal part of the exercises a delightful social session was enjoyed at which Supreme Arch Winkler, Past Grand Noble Arch Meir and others made ringing addresses full of enthusiasm for the dawn of a new day in the onward march of Druidism in North Carolina. Refreshments were served and for an hour or more the Grand Grove well carried out the Bibical injunction, "eat, drink and be merry."

BIG GAME SATURDAY

Much Local Interest in University-Davidson Football Game Here.

What is declared without a doubt by those who ought to know the biggest sporting event ever pulled off in Wilmington will be the annual football game between the University and Davidson tomorrow afternoon at New League Park. The two teams will clash on the grid-iron for the championship of the State. It will indeed be college day in Wilmington and the outlook is for the largest crowd and the most enthusiastic crowd ever assembled at the ball ground. The field is being laid off so that each and every play will be in full view of the grandstand and bleachers. A charge of 25 cents will be made for these seats and the managers of the park have arranged for every advantage to be given those in these seats. Those who go in on general admission will have space in the field. Space has also been reserved for automobiles and carriages. General admission, grandstand and bleacher tickets are on sale at DeRosset's and the Gerken Tobacco Company's store; also flags and other emblems.

The alumni of the University will give a german at Lumina tomorrow night to the two teams and this bids fair to be a great social event. Besides the game and the dance a number of smaller social functions have been arranged in honor of the visitors. Both teams will arrive on a special Pullman over the Seaboard Air Line this midnight and will have headquarters at The Orton.

THE DAVIDSON TEAM.

In Fine Fettle For Football Game Here Tomorrow.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Davidson, N. C., Oct. 14.—Great interest is being manifested here over the game that will be played in Wilmington on Saturday, the 17th with the University of North Carolina. The team practices daily and several practice games have been arranged for this week with minor colleges.

A few defects in Davidson's style of playing, which were evident in the Virginia game have been carefully eradicated, and when these old-time rivals clash together it will be a battle royal. No game was played between them last year, and although in previous time neither has proved to be the better, Davidson is making strenuous efforts to carry off the laurels this year.

The Davidson team is stronger by far than it has been for several years past, as practically all of last year's men have returned and it has the advantage this season of being coached by Mr. Levine, who was a star half-back of Yale University, and who has a wide reputation both as player and coach. Mr. Levine is rapidly rounding the team into perfect shape and it will be in fine condition for the approaching game.

FIRST JOINT DEBATE

THE DISCUSSION LAST NIGHT

Hon. H. L. Godwin and Col. A. H. Slocomb Addressed Voters in Court House Last Night. Leave This Morning.

The Sixth District Congressional candidates in action was a novelty in local political campaign which served to draw a large crowd to the Court House last night to hear the issues discussed in joint debate between Hon. H. L. Godwin, the Democratic nominee, and his Republican opponent, Colonel A. H. Slocomb. The novelty proved quite refreshing and Democratic leaders expressed themselves in every way pleased with the result of the meet.

Each of the gentlemen spoke an hour without repoinder, Mr. Godwin leading off with a discussion of both State and National issues and calling upon his opponent to stand with him on the record of the parties, Colonel Slocomb confining himself almost exclusively to National questions and dismissing Mr. Godwin's arraignment of Republican misrule in the State with the statement that it was an appeal to sentiment and prejudice about matters of which he had no knowledge.

Every available seat in the large Court room was taken and many stood in the doors and in the aisles. Mr. Godwin was first to arrive in company with Democratic County Chairman Furlong and President MacRae, of the Bryan and Kitchin Club. Colonel Slocomb came in a few minutes later, escorted by Postmaster Wallace and Secretary D. D. Lennon, of the Republican Committee. Both were received with applause from their respective supporters in the hall.

The meeting was called to order by President Cameron MacRae, of the Democratic Club, who introduced Mr. Godwin, referring to his service in Congress in the Federal appropriation bill, the deepening of the Cape Fear, the drainage of swamp lands and other matters making for the upbuilding of the district. He took pleasure in presenting Mr. Godwin to a New Hanover audience.

Mr Godwin expressed pleasure at again meeting Wilmington people for whom he professed the highest regard as his record in Congress would show, notably the Custom House appropriation in their behalf and the recognition by Congress of the 30-foot channel project for this city. He also referred to the bill now pending in Congress for purchasing and beautifying the Fort Fisher battle ground and extending the inland waterway from Beaufort to Wilmington; also to the movement that he has inaugurated for swamp drainage in Eastern Carolina, to all of which he pledged his undivided support.

With this brief review of his career in Congress, Mr. Godwin passed on to the main part of his address, the record of the two great parties in State and Nation. Taking up the Republican record, he said that within 16 days after Congress had been in session for six long months, they went out to Chicago and declared for many and great reforms. What he wanted to know was why these reforms had not been carried out while their congress and their senate and their President were in charge of affairs at Washington. He assailed the Republican record on currency reform and charged the party with responsibility for the late panic.

Discussing State issues he challenged Colonel Slocomb to come upon the stand after he was through and promise the voters to stand upon his party's record in the State, as the past was the only thing upon which to correctly judge the future. The Democratic party was willing to stand on its record in the State and upon that ground he asked for a larger majority for William W. Kitchin than was ever rolled up before.

Taking up the State platform adopted at Charlotte, he contrasted Republican action with Republican promises, reviewing the record of the party on Confederate pensions as compared with that of the Democrats, declaring Republicanism per se a sworn enemy of the South and its glorious traditions. He eulogized the Confederate soldier and gave all honor to Democracy for what it has done in the way of pensions. He reviewed the reconstruction period and charged that the Republican party was the same now as then. He believed on the record that it would be 25 years before the people would ever so far forget themselves as to return this party to power again.

The Republican platform was silent upon one question and that was the penitentiary. The Democratic party had taken this institution from a $50,000 losing proposition a year, made it self-sustaining and made it pay more than $50,000 a year into the treasury.

MARYLAND FOR BRYAN.

In a letter to the Chicago Record-Herald Walter Wellman gives his views on the much discussed question as to which party will secure the electoral vote of Maryland. He says that while the State is in doubt the present tendency is decidedly Democratic. The following, he says, are the three principal reasons for his opinion:

"That there, as elsewhere in the East, the labor vote, both union and unorganized, shows a marked tendency to Bryan.

"That whereas it was hitherto supposed the negro vote would be, as usual, almost solidly Republican, a considerable percentage of its is now certain to be Democratic.

"The uncertain attitude of an important independent vote, at first naturally inclined against Bryan and toward Taft, but now doubtful because of dislike of the activity of President Roosevelt in the campaign and Judge Taft's oft-repeated declaration that if elected he would carry out the Roosevelt policies."

Mr. Wellman has given the situation in Maryland and other eastern States thorough study and his opinion is worthy of consideration. There can be no doubt that Bryan has gained and will continue to gain strength through the first and third causes mentioned; but we doubt his getting any considerable support from the negroes. If he does it will be, as Mr. Wellman says, unusual.

The same tendencies found by Mr. Wellman to exist in Maryland are to be found all over the eastern and central States and mean thousands of votes for the Democratic nominee which have always heretofore been cast without hesitation for the Republican ticket.

GOOD SIGN FOR BRYAN.

At the close of the third day for registration in New York city the number registered was thirty-four thousand short of what it was for the same days four years ago. The Democrats take this as a good sign, arguing that it shows that there is no fear among the business men and financiers for the prosperity of the country should Bryan be elected. Were this class of men fearful of the results to follow a change of administration they would be flocking to the registration booths to qualify themselves as voters in order to help prevent such change. This class of men at commercial centers are indifferent in political matters unless they think their interests are jeopardized and then they are aroused to great activity, as was seen in 1896 when that monster business men's parade through Broadway created such consternation. Did the business men, the bankers and the financiers of New York today hold the same views as to results of Bryan's election as they did in that year there would be seen the same activity among them as then to bring about his defeat. These same men who did everything in their power to defeat Bryan twelve years ago are either favoring his election now or view with such little concern the results of his election as effecting their interests that they are taking no part in the election.

OUR MONETARY SYSTEM.

Senator Aldrich's investigation of the financial systems of the countries of Europe, which he made on a recent trip abroad for that purpose, was quite a revelation to him and also a great shock when he compared them with the so-called system of the United States. Just before leaving London he was interviewed on the subject by the representative of the New York World and he is credited with saying:

"The idea that has impressed me more than anything else as a result of our investigation of the banking and currency systems of England, France, and Germany is that we have no system at all at home."

Senator Aldrich was a member of the commission which was sent abroad by our Government to study the financial systems of the countries mentioned, in order to ascertain whether ours could be improved by adopting some of the features of those. Judging from the above remark one would suppose he is most emphatically of the opinion that such could be done.

It is a slam on the statesmen of this country who have been continually "improving" our financial system for years to be told that it has no system at all, and of course the Senator will be taken severely to task by some of them for having made such an onslaught upon what is called our system. If the balance of the commissioners are of the same opinion as Senator Aldrich it means a renewed fight on the monetary question, and a more bitter one than ever, during the next session of Congress.

ROOSEVELT AS ELECTION FORECASTER.

Now Roosevelt comes to the front as an election forecaster. It is true his figures are announced to be unofficial—we don't see how such a document, although issued from the executive offices, could be anything but unofficial. At the same time it shows what absured claims the Republicans are making. Roosevelt states that Taft will receive three hundred and six electoral votes, leaving the States of Maryland and Colorado doubtful. Chairman Mack facetiously remarked, on reading the President's claim, that the only fault he had to find with it was that it did not include the State of Texas. Roosevelt, of course, is talking big to keep up the spirits of his people, but he has overshot the mark. He claims too much. Those he is trying to cheer up by his absurd claims understand his purpose and know that they are for out of reason, and knowing this, the result is likely to be just the reverse of what was intended. It will convince doubtful voters and the indifferent people how badly scared the Republicans are.

VOTING PRECINCT WITH NO VOTERS.

There is a regularly constituted election precinct in the business part of New York city in which not a single voter resides and this fact is known to the authorities. The place of registration is a billiard saloon, and regularly on the registration days the four election inspectors assemble and sit out the day, watching the pool playing, and draw their seven dollars per diem. The proprietor of the saloon gets five dollars a day for the use of his place and will get thirty for its occupancy on election day. Also there are three policemen on duty to preserve order and to see that there is no interference in registering by the voters who all know do not exist. It is said the formation of this precinct was for some political purpose but what no one but the few on the inside know. Graft, of course, is at the bottom of the thing.

The National Geographic Magazine for October contains in its interesting table of contents: "Cuzco, America's Ancient Mecca" by Harriet Chalmers Adams, author of "Along the Old Inca Highway," etc., "Across Wildest Africa," and the "Conservation League of America," the articles being handsomely and profusely illustrated. The magazine is published by the National Geographic Society of Washington, D. C., the price being $2.50 a year or 25 cents per copy.

Why couldn't that negro have been held in Salisbury and protected against mob violence as well as was done in similar circumstances in Spartanburg, S. C.? There the officers did their duty—from the Governor down to the privates in the State Guard. They did not run from a mob—imaginary or real, but stood their ground and upheld the law and the honor of the State.

In a recent speech out West Taft stated that the proposed tariff revision by the Republicans was to be "not too greatly in the interest of the consumer." This is consoling to the wage-earner who has for some time been viewing the political situation through a dinner-pail out of which the bottom had dropped.

An ordinance of the city of Charlotte prohibits the establishment within the fire limits of garages or places where automibiles are kept, repaired or replenished with gasoline or other inflammable liquids. It does not prohibit an owner housing one on his own premises.

We are to understand that Great Britain's support of Turkey is now only a moral one, not at all selfish or for self interest.

CURRENT COMMENT

—Col. Stewart, who loved the army, who had third to longest service, and who wished to remain until the age limit expired, could not contend against the Big Stick. Roosevelt decreed that he should go, and although his health is as good as it has been for twenty-six years, go he must.—Columbia State.

—This is the first election year in ten that the Republican millionaire has not spent in the frying pan.—Charleston News-Courier. Dont make that mistake, brother. He is in the pan all right, but the frying is being done under cover. That's the only difference—Columbia State.

—The figures of the recent Georgia election have been totaled and the Hon. Joseph Brown is elected Governor by a majority of 105,000. The figures indicate that Mr. Brown may properly entertain hopes of staying at the capitol through a second term, notwithstanding the uncertain quality of the Georgia brand of popularity.—Chattanooga Times.

—There are many colleges in the South suffering from disappointment because the Peabody fund is not to be distributed. The maw of the small college is always aching for money. And no money can be better invested by philanthropists. The big institutions get millions and the small ones ask only for thousands, and the calls are not heeded as often as they should be. The small college is the character builder of the country.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

—After smiting the Republicans hip and thigh on the subject of the publicity of campaign contributions and reducing Roosevelt and Taft to silence, Bryan has been pouring hot shot into the sacred extortionate tariff and effectively riduculing the G. O. P. as the boasted champion prosperity-maker of the universe. The Republicans may continue to hail their party as the author of the good crops, and therefore of the rain, the soil, and the sun, but they will find it very difficult to answer Bryan if they are forced to face prosaic and inconvenient facts in their order.—Macon Telegraph.

—Facts that are leaking out with reference to the labors of the Tariff Commission which went to France during the past Summer are emphasizing very strongly a point of view already taken by those who were best informed concerning our foreign trade relationships. The situation seems to be that the commission was not in position to accomplish much of direct significance or value for the reason that it had little or nothing on which to rest its negotiation. This lack of achievement brings to the front the fact that some ne wbasis of argument must be provided if we expect to seek concessions in the future from countries which employ maximum and minimum systems of tariff legislation, or which discriminate between their contemporaries in accordance with the trade advantages granted to themselves—Journal of Commerce.

—If Theodore Roosevelt is really looking for undesirable men he need go no further than the Republican national ticket. Let him inquire how many millions of Indian oil leases have been given away since James Sherman was made chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs of the House of Representatives. Let him find out what the Indian ever got for those leases in excess of a bottle of whiskey. Let him find out how many times those leases were given away in some omnibus appropriation bill, and how few were granted in bills whose title stated their contents. If the Republican party proposes to appeal to the conscience, the patriotism and the incorruptible citizenship of the country it must rid itself of the candidacy of James Sherman or its campaign is a forgery on its face. —Buffalo Times.

—Our American Abdul, Speaker Cannon, made a mistake in attacking Mr. Bryan; he laid himself open to certain obvious come-backs; and Mr. Bryan is especially swift on the come-back. For one thing, the Speaker referred to the Nebraskan as "a man who has a bearking out of the mouth." This immediately recalled the breaking out of Mr. Cannon's mouth some years ago which retired him to private life—unfortunately not for long. For another thing, his remarks about Mr. Bryan's wealth called forth a challenge to declare the sum of his own possessions and to say how he came by them. Now, the Nebraskan's personal honesty has never been impugned; what he possesses he made by talking and writing. Mr. Cannon is reported a much richer man than Bryan, and he did not acquire his money by talking and writing. The opponents of the peeriess one would better confine their attacks to critism of the political theories he puts forth, and let his personal affairs alone. If they were all as honest as he there would be no call for muck-rakers.—Puck.

When Nerves Twitch

suffer greatly from their nerves. They twitch, pull, ache and throb and keep things all wrought up.

What is needed is a gentle tonic like Cardui, to soothe the nerves into forgetfulness and repose.

Of course the reason you need Cardui it that it is a woman's medicine, that acts on womanly troubles, hence helps womanly nerves.

Cardui has been so wonderfully successful in relieving or curing other women's ailments, that we are pretty safe in saying it will surely help you.

Experience counts. Read the experience of Mrs. Alta Hanes, of Griffithville, Ark., She says: "Before I took Cardui for my female troubles, I suffered death a thousand times. I used to have nervous spells until sometimes I didn't want to live another minute. The first bottle helped me, and after taking ten bottles I am today a well woman." Try Cardui.

Should a Man Economize On His Clothes?

If we had high-priced clothing to sell, we could probably convince you that you couldn't afford to wear cheap clothing.

No man can afford to wear clothes that discount him in the eyes of everybody he meets. But you can't walk a block in this city with out passing many men who are wearing clothing that sets badly on them; is curled at the edges, and drawn out of shape—because they paid a few dollars less for it than they would have need to pay for perfect-fitting clothes.

And the perfect-fitting clothing would not only make them look better and feel better every minute they had it on, BUT WOULD WEAR HALF AS LONG AGAIN, at least, and so be cheaper in the end than the clothes that never gave any satisfaction, first or last.

But, while SOLKY CLOTHING is the BEST that is known, ready-made, in style, workmanship and finish, it costs just about the same as the less worthy kinds.

Men's Sack Suits, $15 to $28
Men's Fall Overcoats, $15 to $25
Men's Raincoats, $15 to $25

MEN'S COLORED STIF BOSOM SHIRTS.

Many men of the very best taste insist upon wearing stiff-bosom shirts. We have provided two unusually handsome lines in patterns that will suit the most fastidious. Made of fine percales in beautiful printings. Some of the shirts are made coat style with attached cuffs, at $1.50 EACH; others, open front and back, with attached or separate cuffs $1.00 EACH.

We give Gold Band Trading Stamps on all cash purchases.

TAFT'S VISIT HERE

As Much Reflection on State as His Speech on His Paty.

(Special Star Correspondence..)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 14.—The reason given by Mr. Taft for his visit to North Carolina and other Southern States is as much of a reflection on the State as a whole as his speech in Greensboro to the Republican State Convention in 1896 was on his party in this State. He is reported in the New York Tribune of last Sunday as follows:

"I am going South to make a few speeches—one in Kentucky, one in Tennessee, one in North Carolina, one in Virginia, and one in Maryland—not so much with a view to carrying those States as to show the people down there that, no matter what they think, they are a part of the Union, and, being a part of the Union, they ought to vote for the Republican party, voting for which will make them a part of the Nation and give to them that influence which people of their intelligence and energy and progress and enterprise ought to enjoy."

This is nothing less than a charge that while the South is bodily a part of the Union that its thought is not loyal to the Union and that the only means by which the South can establish its loyalty and become a part of the nation is by allying itself with the Republican party, of which Mr. Taft said, in speaking to the representatives of that party, assembled in convention in Greensboro just two years ago:

"In my judgment the Republican party in North Carolina would be much stronger as a voting party if all the Federal offices were filled by Democrats." (All the State offices were filled by Democrats.) And again: "As long, however, as the Republican party in the Southern States shall represent little save a factional chase for Federal offices in which business men and men of substance in the community have no desire to enter, and in the result of which they have no interest, we may expect the present political conditions of the South to continue."

Mr. Taft's surprising statement can be accounted for on no other theory than his propensity for making breaks. North Carolina's loyalty to the Union, in thought and sentiment as well as in fact, will not be questioned by any one but Judge Taft or Judge Montgomery, and for the simple sake of convincing them it will no more ally itself with Judge Taft's "unfit North Carolina Federal Office-seekers" than it will support Judge Taft in his and his party's alliance with the trusts and protected interests upon which he relies to purchase his election to the presidency.

CONVICTED OF FORGERY.

A Brooklyn Lawyer Sent to Penitentiar for This Crime.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15.—Frank C. Marrin, a former Brooklyn lawyer and politician, was convicted of forgery in the first degree today and was remanded for sentence on Wednesday. Marrin was found guilty of forging a mortgage on which he secured $4,000 from Mrs. Carolina Barry, a widow, from whom Marrin is alleged to have obtained her entire fortune of $70,000 by questionable methods. Mrs. Barry died last year in very straightened circumstances.

Marrin disappeared from Philadelphia after the Story-Cotton case came into public notice. He was convicted in that city on a charge of using the mails fraudulently and was released on furnishing $10,000 bail pending an appeal.

THE PEACE CONGRESS.

It Closes With Speeches by Hobson and W. G. Hubbard.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 15.—The North Carolina Peace Congress, which has been in session here for four days, adjourned today. At the final session, Congressman Hobson and the Rev. William G. Hubbard discussed the question of a larger navy, Hubbard contending that war is a relic of the past and there is now no need of an army or navy except to quell riots. Hobson contended that the army is possibly large enough, but we need a greater navy to keep down militarism and unjust demands by foreign powers.

Mrs. Lizzie George Henderson, former President General of the United States Daughters of Confederacy, also addressed the congress today.

The Good Roads Congress held session both morning and afternoon.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. W. S. Vaughan, of Rocky Mount, was a Wilmington business visitor yesterday.

—Mrs. D. W. Manson, of Southport, is spending a few days in Wilmington visiting relatives and friends.

—Mrs. Preston Cumming and little daughter, Miss Annie Bacot, have returned home after a pleasant visit of several months at Buena Vista and Bedford county, V.

—Elder J. T. Johnson is attending the Eastern North Carolina Advent Christian Conference, which convened yesterday with the church at Myrtle Grove Sound. He will return in time to fill the pulpit at the Advent Christian church next Sunday as usual.

—Mr. R. W. Vincent, managing editor of the Charlotte Observer and an old Wilmingtonian whom Wilmington is proud to claim, is here for a few days gathering data on the proposed establishment of coal docks in this city by the Clinchfield, Carolina & Ohio Railroad Company. Mr. Vincent is being most cordially received by his numerous friends in this city.

SUES CITY OF FAYETTEVILLE

Action Brought in United States Circuit Court to Recover Alleged Debt.

A suit against the city of Fayetteville has been brought in the United States Circuit Court here by the receivers of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, of Pittsburg, Pa., to recover an amount alleged to be due for machinery furnished the electric plant and to enforce the claim as a lien against the plant and security for the amount.

The action is brought against W. D. McNeill, treasurer of the Public Works Commission, and A. A. McKeithan, treasurer of the city. The summons was served yesterday by Deputy U. S. Marshal J. A. Colvin. In the complaint accompanying the summons is set forth: that on October 13th, 1905, the Westinghouse Company entered into a contract with the city of Fayetteville, to furnish the Public Works Commission with $4,828 worth of electrical equipment and that only $2,689.08 had been paid on said contract.

The suit is to recover the $2,689.08 with interest, and $200 in addition, which the complaint alleges, is due said company for services of an expert it sent to Fayetteville.

The city will resist the suit, claiming among other things that the payment of the $2,689.08 has been withheld owing to the non-fulfillment of the terms of the contract by the Westinghouse Company in that the machinery furnished did not perform the work as guaranteed, and further that the charge of $200 for an expert is wrong in that the expert's coming was necessitated by said defective machinery.

The complaint is returnable the first Monday in November at the Federal Court in Wilmington.

The plaintiffs are represented by Shepard Bryan, Esq., of Atlanta, and Messrs. Rountree & Carr.

'RAH FOR FARMERS!

North Carolina A. & M. Defeated Georgetown University 5 to 0.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 15.—The North Carolina A. & M. College was the victor this afternoon in a fine game of football with Georgetown University, the score being 5 to 0. The score was a touch-down near the end of first half. Indeed most of the first half was rather one-sided in favor of the North Carolina Farmers, who plunged through Georgetown lines in a way that looked like the game would be wholly one sided. However the visitors rallied in the last half and it was all the Farmers could do to keep them from scoring. They were held off by the narrowest margin. The teams are really well matched. For the visitors Miller, the right-half, did a sensational rear tackle in the first half, while for the Farmers the most notable allround work was by Stephens, quarter-back.

Summary—Touch-down, Stephens for A. & M. Referee, Dr. Joel Whitaker. Umpire A. P. Hall, Swarthmore College. Timekeeper L. V. Dunlap, University North Carolina. Chief Lineman, O. Max Gardner, Time of halves 25 minutes.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

An Appeal to Public to Discontinue Indiscriminate Alms Giving.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Associated Charities held on Tuesday, it was resolved that an appeal be made to the public to refrain from giving to persons begging from door to door, or presenting notes or signed papers asking for help. It is desired that all such persons be referred to the office of the Association where their claims will be investigated. The directors feel that allowing these appeals to be made hampers their work and puts the Association in a false light with the public.

The Theatre

Tonight the Academy will present Black Patti and her merry troubadours. For this engagement the Mason-Newcomb Stock Company, which has been successfully holding the boards this week, will lay-off, but will resume its run tomorrow afternoon, when the popular success, "His Country Sweetheart," will be presented and the prices will be 10 and 20 cents. Tomorrow night the company will close its engagement.

The Black Patti Company consists of forty Afro-Americans, headed by Mme. Sissieretta Jones, popularly known as the "Black Patti" and considered to be the most accomplished singer of her race, and "Tutt" Whitney, the unexcelled droll comedian, reputed to be the funniest colored man alive. Black Patti has appeared with great success in Europe, singing in Paris, Berlin, St. Petersburg, London and other music centers, and enjoys the distinction of having sung by command for the present King of Great Britain. Her success in the United States with the Troubadours covers a period of eleven years. During that time she has appeared before the largest audiences that ever assembled to pay homage to a diva. At the Madison Square Garden, New York City, she attracted an audience numbering over 16,000, and at the great Pittsburg Exposition 23,000 people assembled to hear her sing.

Wayne Musical Comedy Co.

The Wayne Musical Comedy Co., offers music, fun and girls with an abundance of each next week at the Academy for a two nights' engagement commencing Monday when "The White Hat" will receive its initial local presentation. On the strength of what has been said of it in othtr cities this play should prove a rare treat for those who like this form of entertainment. Incidental to the play there are introduced more than twenty musical numbers the most popular of which are "I Want To Hear a Yankee Doodle Tune Jimmie" "Playing the Ponies," "Take a Ride With Me," "Sly Old Fox," "I need a Job.." A large chorus becomingly costumed is heard to advantage in the several ensemble numbers. The sale of seats for Monday night will commence tomorrow. Prices will go to $1.

The Crystal Palace.

An entire change of vaudeville acts went on at the Crystal Palace yesterday and met the hearty approval of large audiences both afternoon and night. The different well known artists appearing this week at the Palace presented a change in their respective work and their new "stunts" were every bit as pleasing as the ones given the first part of the week. Emmett and Lower are introducing something new and rapid-fire in the way of comedy work, while those popular sketchists, Sprague and Dixon, are serving-up something different and something decidedly ludicrous. Harry St. Clair is doing another comedy act that is pleasing all, while Johnnie Dapp, the "man with the trained legs," is presenting some steps that are great. The present bill will hold forth again today and tomorrow.

The Red-Robed Ku Klux Klan.

The regalia and costumes of any organization usually carry a deep significance. The white robes of the Ku Klux Klan carried their own message. After the dissolution of that powerful organization by order of General Nathan B. Forrest certain sections of the South were overrun by base imitations of the original order. It is little wonder that these unscrupulous night riders, who wrought such wicked wrongs under the cloak of a stolen name donned the red robes of anarchy and blood. In "The Traitor," the dramatic sequel to "The Clansman" both the real Ku Klux Klan and the base counterfeit figure very prominently. This powerful organization of Thomas Dixon, Jr's latest novel will be seen at the Academy of Music, Matinee and night Wednesday, October 21. Seats sale opens at Plummer's Friday, October 16th.

Claims He Owns Property.

In the case of Mr. Mark Winner, who was recognized for his appearance before Justice Bornemann to answer the charge of injury to personal property at Carolina Beach, and which is set for trial today at noon, the former claims that the Star was in error in stating that the property was that of Captain Harper. Mr. Winner claims that the property in question belongs to him, and that others contentions between the parties concerned caused the matter to be brought into court. Attorneys have been employed on either side and the case will be of interest.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 15.—An enthusiastic meeting of Democrats was held in the opera house tonight for the purpose of organizing a Bryan-Kitchin Club. Mr. R. D. Caldwell was elected president and Mr. J. A. Sharpe, secretary. Stirring speeches were made and much good work is expected to be done by the organization of this club.

The 121st annual session of the Presbyterian Synod of Virginia which embraces all the Southern Presbyterian churches and ministers in this State, West Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia, met last night at Roanoke, Va. Of the 775 members of the body there were about 300 present. Rev. J. E. Booker, of Martinsville, Va., was chosen moderator, and Revs. S. W. Irvin and H. H. Pratt and ruling Elder James Whittel were elected assistant clerks.

besides. He charged that an incompetent penitentiary official had been removed by the Republicans and placed over the farmers of the State. He ridiculed the plank in the Charlotte platform declaring for the removal of stripes from convicts serving time for misdemeanors and digressed to National issues, discussing the publicity plank of the two platforms, and returning to the record of the two parties in the State on education, showing up the record in vivid manner.

He read from the Democratic handbook to justify his allusions to the negro and called upon Colonel Slocomb to state his position on the Crumpacker resolution to cut down Southern representation and how he stood on the constitutional amendment in the first place. The Republican platform by declaring its consistent friendship for the negro practically endorsed the Crumpacker resolution and a nullification of the suffrage amendments in the South. He declared this matter one vital to the political and social structure of the State. Every Republican leader of prominence in North Carolina had been opposed to the amendment and still are. These are the same leaders who are in the forefront of the party today. Mr. Godwin was warmly applauded throughout his speech.

R. W. Herring, Esq., presented Colonel A. H. Slocomb at the conclusion of Mr. Godwin's address, saying that he needed no introduction to the people of the Cape Fear. He was a business man, a successful business man and the people of the district would make no mistake in entrusting their affairs into his hands.

Colonel Slocomb expressed pleasure at meeting the people of New Hanover politically and reviewed affairs leading up to his nomination and acceptance. He had challenged Mr. Godwin to a discussion of the living issues, not ancient history. He traced his experience in the South, coming here just after the war, declaring many of those carpet-baggers who came here to plunder the State during reconstruction, were Democrats not Republicans. He charged that the Democratic party had departed from its traditions under Jefferson and Jackson. He ridiculed Bryan and went back into "ancient history" himself long enough to bring up sixteen to one.

He was sorry that Mr. Godwin had not brought up the question of the tariff. There were two methods of levying import upon foreign merchandise; a tariff for revenue only and a protective tariff, discriminating in favor of American industries. The revision of the tariff declared for by the Republicans was on the protective side and was largely upon the luxuries of life. The protective tariff largely made for an increase of our exports, figures being quoted in support of this contention. Either wages must be reduced to the low level of England or we must have a protective tariff to lift the American laborer above the ordinary pauper. The American working man doesn't realize the blessings he enjoys in this glorious country. He ridiculed Mr. Bryan's idea of taking the tariff off trust made goods, stating that trusts were merely a growth of the commerce of a country and they are quite as numerous in England as here. The tariff off lumber, a trust product, would ruin the South which furnishes from 40 to 50 per cent. of the lumber for the world. In defense of the tariff on wood pulp, he said that the newspapers, those North, were growing rich and they should not object to bearing their share of the burden.

He charged that Bryan was the right hand man of Wilson in framing the monstrosity known as the Wilson Tariff Bill, repudiated even by Mr. Cleveland himself, which the speaker charged was the cause of the panic that followed Harrison's administration. The Dingley tariff bill was declared the panacea which brought on a period of unequalled prosperity and he viewed with alarm any Bryan tariff that might be brought forward.

Colonel Slocomb asked what is a trust? There is nothing illegal in a corporation, no matter how large its capital nor how extensive its operations. If Mr. Bryan knew of any trusts that were illegal, he as a good citizen ought to go before a grand jury and secure indictments. He attacked the Democratic attitude toward the anti-trust law passed by the Republicans because of its paternalistic tendencies and its tendency toward centralization. He pointed to Roosevelt as the original trust buster and charged that the Standard Oil Co., had gone over body and soul to Bryan and Haskell.

He attributed the panic to the revelation of rottenness in great New York banking enterprises and declared that the panic is over. All the banks have resumed payment without the loss of a dollar to depositors, a record both phenomenal and unparalleled.

He referred to State issues only briefly and said he stood on the platform, especially the furnishing of school text books to indigent pupils and the exemption of $250 in household and kitchen furniture from taxation.

Answering Mr. Godwin earlier in his address, he said he was 4,000 miles away from North Carolina when the amendment was passed but he rejoiced with the people of the State at its passage. Later he answered Mr. Godwin's thrusts on the negro record by charging that Mr. Bryan was bidding for the black vote and had entered into an infamous compact with Bishop Walters.

In conclusion he yielded to no man in his love and devotion to North Carolina where all his interests are and pictured glowingly what a good thing it would be to have a Republican in a Republican Congress. He wished the people would lay aside all sentiment and prejudice—Mr. Godwin had tried to stir them up on matters which the speaker said he knew nothing about—and put their shoulders together for the development of this great State. He eulogized Taft and declared Bryan a sensational agitator, tending towards socialism. He had neve r recanted upon any of his fallacies and heresies and there was no telling what would be the effect of his impress upon Congress were he elected. He traced the career of Taft, who in breadth of statesmanship, knowledge of diplomacy and unselfish patriotism was without a peer in the world; a friend of the South and a man eminently fitted for the presidency. He begged that the people vote as their interests and consciences dictated. Answering Mr. Godwin's call for a show-down on the Crumpacker resolution, Colonel Slocomb said he stood on the constitution and Mr. Godwin was sworn to do nothing less.

Both the candidates leave on the early morning train today to fill appointments at Whiteville this morning and Boardman tonight.

MRS. E. B. STEVENS DEAD.

End Came Suddenly Last Night at Family Home at Southport, N. C.

As a great shock to the family and friends came the news last night of the death of Mrs. E. B. Stevens, whose death came suddenly at 8 o'clock at the family home in Southport. Mrs. Stevens had been in poor health for some time but yesterday afternoon and evening she was up and about as usual, suffering a sudden attack of heart failure which brought the end quickly. She was the wife of Mr. E. B. Stevens, one of Southport's most highly esteemed citizens and a leading real estate man there. She came with the family from Chicago to Southport in 1888 and had resided there ever since. She was a consecrated member of the Christian Church, having only recently moved her membership to Wilmington upon the establishment of the denomination here. At the time of her death she was in the 75th year of her age and is survived besides her aged husband by five sons and two daughters, the children being Editor C. L. Stevens, of the Newbern Sun; Mr. A. E. Stevens, of Black Mountain, N. C.; Messrs. Vincent, Walter and Stanley E. Stevens, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Percy J. Farrell, of Detroit, and Miss Jessie Stevens, of Southport. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of man friends in this section of the State in the great bereavement which has come upon them. The funeral arrangements will not be made until members of the family have been heard from but it is probable that the interment will be in Southport.

LEFT ON HER DOORSTEP FOR THIS MOTHER

Mrs. A. G. Tuson, of Livermore, Cal., writes: "I picked up from my doorstep one day a little book in which I soon became very much interested. My little girl of five years of age had been troubled for a long time with loss of appetite, extreme nervousness and undue fatigue. She was all run-down and in a very delicate condition.

"This little book was very comprehensively written, and told of the new method of extracting the medicinal elements of the cod's liver from the oil, eliminating the obnoxious oil which is so hard for children to take.

"'Just the thing,' said I, 'for my little daughter,' and I immediately went for a bottle of Vinol. It helped her wonderfully. She has gained rapidly in flesh and strength, and she does not take cold half so easily.

"I am extremely grateful for the good it has done her, and I hope other mothers who have weak, delicate or ailing children will be benefited by my experience and just give Vinol a trial."

TRIAL OF CHANLER CASE

Sensational Trial of Suit at Charlottesville to Recover Fortune—Charges of Fraud Against Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 15.—The case of John Armstrong Chaloner or Chanler, former husband of Amelie Rives, the authoress, against Thomas T. Sherman, of New York, committee, is being heard before Commissioner Booth.

Mr. Chaloner will take the stand tomorrow morning and probably will be under examination all day. "It will be the most sensational thing of my life", said he tonight, referring to the nature of the testimony he expects to give.

The object of the suit is to legally establish the sanity of Chaloner and recover his fortune, alleged to have been confisticated by New York courts. Chaloner is represented by George C. Gregory, Richmond and William Reed, of New York, and Sherman by Joseph H. Choate Jr., son of former Ambassador Choate.

Chaloner charges his brother, Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, candidate for governor of New York, on the Democratic ticket with fraud and practically alleges that his brother made false certificate in order to commit him to a mad house, declaring that his brother in a petition sworn to him in 1897 before a judge of the Supreme Court of New York testified to matters as of his own knowledge as occurring at "The Mercy Mills" in Virginia, when as a matter of fact his brother had not been inside of the house, and had no personal knowledge of the matters at all. In this petition, L. S. Chanler was joined by his brother, Winthrop A. Chanler and by Arthur A. Carey, a cousin.

Testimony is being taken here to avoid the expense of conveying witnesses to New York where the case is set to be hard next Monday.

BACK FROM CENTENNIAL.

Pythian Day and Peace Congress Sessions Interested Wilmingtonians.

Capt. W. F. Robertson and Mr. Thos. H. Wright returned this morning from Greensboro. Capt. Robertson was chief marshal of the great Pythian parade, and Mr. Wright was one of the three judges who assigned various prizes to contesting lodges in line.

Both being officers in the North Carolina Peace Society, they attended the sessions of the National Peace Congress being held during the Centennial week.

The North Carolina Peace Socity applied for admission in the National Practical Peace League, the National organization, and into which State branches are rapidly being incorporated throughout the country. President Roosevelt is President of the Practical Peace League.

Hon. Richard Pearson Hobson, who made the principal address at the Congress, is the First President of the National Practical League, and is a strong advocate of effecting arbitration, and adequate armaments, the attainment of which are the principal purposes of the peace movements.

Capt. Hobson spoke very pleasantly of his anticipated visit to Wilmington next month.

United States Senator McCreary, of Kentucky, Governor Ansel, of South Carolina and others prominent in National life, were enthusiastic participants in the convention.

MRS. CHAS S. KING DEAD

Passed Away Yesterday in Williamsport, Pa.—Relatives Here.

Telegrams were received yesterday notifying friends and relatives here of the death of Mrs. Charles S. King widow of the late Mr. Charles S. King, formerly superintendent of the Cape Fear Lumber Company in this city, which occurred suddenly yesterday morning at the family home in Williamsport, Pa. Mrs. J. J. Loughlin and Mrs. Geo. H. Riddell, who has been visiting Mrs. Loughlin for the past several weeks and daughters of Mrs. King, left on the northbound train last night to attend the funeral which will be at Williamsport at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Mrs. King is survived by twelve children, nine sons and three daughters, all of whom have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

ALL CHEERED FOR BRYAN

Col. Graves Threatened To Appeal to Police to Secure Hearing.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Baltimore, Oct. 15.—Wide publicity having been given the announcement that William R. Hearst and John Temple Grave would address a meeting of the Independence Party, the Princess Theatre was packed tonight. A telegram was read from Mr. Hearst expressing his regrets.

Mr. Graves in his speech credited Mr. Hearst with having injected into his campaign all the interest it possesses, and then severely criticised both the Democratic and Republican parties. He flayed William J. Bryan, the mention of whose name, however, was heartily cheered. The speaker attacked the Democratic Vice Presidential nominee declaring Mr. Kern to be the paid representative of a railroad corporation convicted of criminality. A man in the gallery was ejected for repeatedly shouting "Are you not in the pay of William Randolph Hearst?"

The ejection of the questioner was followed by a call for cheers for Bryan which were given in such a manner that Mr. Graves threatened to appeal to the police to secure him a hearing.

NEW WRIT IN THAW CASE

Will Probably be Carried to Pittsburg Next Sunday to Testify in Bankruptcy Proceedings — Conference is Held.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15.—It was announced here tonight that Harry K. Thaw might go to Pittsburg next Sunday morning, or soon thereafter to testify in connection with the bankruptcy proceedings now pending against him in that city. This information was given out after a conference had been held by Dr. Amos T. Baker, assistant superintendent of the Mattewan hospital, for the criminal insane, where Thaw is confined, and Colonel Asa Bird Gardner, special deputy Attorney General, appointed to take charge of the Thaw case in behalf of the State.

A writ issued by the United States court in Pennsylvania commanding Dr. Robert E. Lamb, superintendent of the Mattewan hospital, to produce Thaw in Pitsburg was served on Dr. Lamb today, and Dr. Baker, his assistant, hastened to New York from Fishkill landing where the hospital is located, to consult with Colonel Gardiner about obeying the writ.

Meantime, Albert H. Meyer, Thaw's Pittsburg attorney and Roger O'Mara, a friend and business agent of the Thaw family has seen Colonel Gardiner and explained to him the puport of the new writ. Colonel Gardiner had objected to a previous writ issued by the Pennsylvania court commanding the production of Thaw in Pittsburg, and the special Attorney General had succeeded in having the writ dismissed, so the Thaw representatives had the new writ issued, and they explained to Colonel Gardner that it complied with the form he had demanded.

Colonel Gardiner says that the Thaw representatives have promised not to put any obstacle in the way of having Thaw returned to New York in case he appears in Pittsburg.

A CHEMICAL FURY.

Fluorine Is a Rabid Gas That Nothing Can Resist.

The fury of the chemical world is the element fluorine, although, strangely enough, it exists peacefully in company with calcium in fluorspar and also in a few other compounds.

Although this element was known and named a good while ago, it long resisted the efforts of chemists to isolate it—that is, prepare it in a pure state, unmixed chemically with other substances—for the instant the compound containing it was torn apart the free fluorine attacked and combined with whatever substance composed the vessel containing it. It was finally isolated by the great French chemist Moissan.

Fluorine is a rabid gas that nothing can resist. It combines with all metals, explosively with some, or if they are already combined with some other nonmetallic element it mercilessly tears them away from it and takes them to itself.

In uniting with sodium, potassium, calcium, magnesium and aluminium the metals become heated, even to redness, by the fervor of its embrace. Iron filings slightly warm burst into brilliant scintillations when exposed to it. Manganese does the same. Even the noble metals, which at melting heat proudly resist the fascinations of oxygen, succumb to this chemical siren at moderate temperatures.

Glass is devoured at once and water ceases to be water by contact with this gas, which, combined with its hydrogen, at the same moment forms the acrid, glass dissolving hydrofluoric acid and liberates ozone.

Even hydrofluoric acid eats into and destroys every known substance except platinum and lead.—Exchange.

Glaciers.

It has been demonstrated that the glacier does not move in one block, but flows, accommodating itself to the channel in which it moves. Professor Tyndall planted a row of sticks in a straight line across a glacier, and after a few days the line had become a crescent, with the concavity upward, showing that the middle of the glacier moved faster than the sides, just as in a river the stream is stronger in the center.

Her Name.

One needs patience to succeed as a teacher of the young, as this brief dialogue in one of our elementary schools may show:

Scholar—I've left home now, ma'am. I'm living with my auntie.

Teacher—What's her name?

"She's called after me—Fanny."

"Yes, but what's her other name?"

"She has no other."

"But what does the woman next door call her?"

"She doesn't speak to the woman next door."

A Hard Job.

"Didn't you say six months ago that if Miss Tipkins wouldn't marry you you would throw yourself into the deepest part of the sea? Now, Miss Tipkins married some one else three months ago and yet you haven't"—

"Oh, it's easy to talk, but let me tell you it is not such an easy matter to find the deepest part of the sea."

Substitutes.

Doctor—Have you given him the champagne and oysters, as I ordered? Patient's Wife—Well, no, sir, I couldn't afford that, so I got him some ginger beer and whelks instead. Do it matter, sir?—London Telegraph.

IT CAME FROM DIVINE SOURCE

ON BIBLICAL AUTHORITY

Col. Dillingham's Lecturer, Mr. Mills, Made Interesting Talk to One of Largest Crowds That Has Attended These Performances.

After giving a nightly performance for over two weeks at the corner of Fourth and Castle streets, the Dillingham Plant Juice entertainment has been moved to another location, at the corner of Sixth and Red Cross streets. There have been a large number of requests from residents of that section, asking that the entertainment be moved to that portion of the city, and owing to the fact that it is impossible to secure a lot of sufficient size in the central portion of the city the invitation of the citizens in that section of the city was accepted.

This popular section of Wilmington turned out in force last night to attend the first performance at the new location, the audience being one of the largest since the opening of the Dillingham free shows in this city. The Plant Juice comedians were at the best and an excellent programme was rendered by the concert band.

Mr. Mills, Col. Dillingham's local representative and lecturer, talked interestingly concerning the Plant Juice remedies, the method of their manufacture; their powerful influence over disease, and the honorable terms upon which they are offered to the public. He told his hearers of the ancient and divine origin of vegetable and herb remedies and said in part:

"Let me refer you to chapter 47, twelfth verse, of Ezekiel where it saith that there shall grow trees and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.' You will also find in Revelation, 22 chapter, second verse, that John saith 'and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nation.' Therefore Plant Juice is older than any man living. It is the one God-given remedy that will positively cure those common ills that a human being is heir to, for the reason that it acts directly upon the vital organs of man; the kidneys, stomach, liver, bladder, blood and the nerves, removing the cause of disease in the only rational and natural manner.

No one is asked to believe that Plant Juice will do these things, its ability to conquer disease is proven to the satisfaction of all by public demonstrations of its merit, and numerous testimonials, letters and affidavits from persons who have been relieved of disease and affliction through this wonderful remedy. In addition to this it is sold under a guarantee that it will do all that is claimed for it. An enormous demand for the Plant Juice remedies has developed in Wilmington since their introduction here and they can now be bought at all drug stores.

Live Mule, Dead Boar.

An odd hunting adventure recently befell a British officer in India. He was mounted on a fleet mule and was running down a wild boar, intending to lance it, when the animal turned, bit the mule's leg and then fled again. The mule screamed savagely, and in a minute she had deposited the officer on the ground. Then, kicking out vigorously five or six times, as if to see that her legs were all right, she started after the unfortunate pig at lightning speed, with fury in her eyes and vengeance in the crook of her ears. The race was not long, and the wild boar soon realized that he had exasperated a relentless enemy. He was soon winded, and the mule, coming up with him, caught him by the backbone with her teeth, crunched it and threw him to the ground and then, before he could rise, kicked him so viciously that he was a dead boar in less than no time. Then the mule returned to her master and gave utterance to a "heehaw" of triumph.

A Fool's Identity.

Some of the best known people pass unrecognized by those to whom they should be known. Harold Frederick sat one night at dinner next a man whose very silence and taciturnity caused him the more closely covertly to survey him. Not a word was exchanged between the two. "Who was that hopeless idiot that I sat next to at dinner?" asked Frederick at the close of the meal. "That hopeless idiot was Cecil Rhodes," he was answered. It was the fact. The Colossus had been in one of the moods in which he would not talk, and Frederick, though he had seen his portrait a hundred times, had not recognized him.—St. James' Gazette.

Why James Lee Got Well.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

—Salisbury Post: Final arrangements have been made for Judge Taft's reception next Saturday. A. H. Price, Esq., received a letter this morning from Chairman Spencer B. Adams, of the State Republican committee stating that Judge Taft will arrive in Salisbury from the West on a special train between 8 and 8:15 o'clock and will leave for Greensboro betwen 10 and 11. Mr. Price will have Judge Taft at an informal breakfast and apart from this and the courtesies shown him by individuals as the scant opportunity may allow during his stay there will be nothing of a social character in the distinguished visitor's honor. Mayor Boyden, as chief executive of the city has appointed several gentlemen to act in conjunction with the reception committee.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Rocky Mount Record: No Recorders court this morning making the third successive day that such has been the case. The recent cold snap seems to have caused a mending of the ways of the evil doers of the city.

—News and Observer: Mr. Josephus Daniels returned from Goldsboro last night where he had been to see his mother, Mrs. M. C. Daniels, who is seriously ill. He stated that Mrs. Daniels' condition had greatly improved and her early recovery is expected.

—Tarboro Southerner: The farmers are complaining somewhat over the cotton crop, saying it is less than they expected when they began picking. As the same thing can be said of the price, such complaints are to be expected and difficult to resist.

—New Bern Sun: The good people of Pamlico county are up in arms and wide awake on the political situation. They have organized a very enthusiastic Bryan-Kern Club at Arapahoe. They have a good membership and are doing excellent work in the county.

—Palmyra, N. C., Oct. 14.—At 4:30 o'clock this morning the people of this place were alarmed by fire breaking out in L. J. Baker's gin house. The whole building was burned, together with considerable cotton, seed and machinery. The loss is great, but unestimated. The fire originated in the side, near one of the gins.

—Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 14.—Thomas S. Dalton, the prominent and popular young business man of this city, whose skull was fractured when he was thrown from a horse here Tuesday, was at a late hour tonight in a most critical condition with no hope held out for his recovery.

—Greenville Reflector: Harry, little son of Mr. J. S. Peed, who swallowed a pin sometime ago and was taken to the Kinston hospital to have it removed from his throat, where it lodged, was brought home Monday. The place on his neck where it was necessary to cut to remove the pin has healed nicely and he is getting along well.

—Greensboro Record: Mr. William Grant is another old Guilfordite who left the county in 1856 and went to Corinth, Miss, traveling in a wagon, and who is back to take in the Centennial. Mr. Grant is 85 years old, but is in good health and looks like he would not mind making another journey in the good old way before railroads were ever known.

—Kenansville News: The flower fields at Magnolia present a beautiful picture these days. The caladiums, callas, cannas, tube roses are lovely at this season. The Newbury Co., and Croom Bros., are large dealers in bulbs. This business is quite an industry in Duplin county. They are shipped to several foreign countries each year.

—Newbern Journal: A few years ago it was very unusual to see a white man in jail in this county or in fact in any jail in this section. But since the prohibition laws went into effect, there are about as many white prisoners as negroes. The gang of white convicts sent out to the roads this week was enough to make the average citizen sit up and take notice.

Sampson Democrat: Mr. John Cooper arrived home on the morning of the 10th from Johns Hopkins Hospital, accompanied by his brother, Dr. G. M. Cooper, who went up for him. The trip was very taxing to him and caused him to feel the worse, though he soon rested more comfortably after reaching home. All our people sympathize with him and the family very deeply. John is an upright young man, and popular with all.

—Goldsboro Argus: With good corn and forage crops in this section, which always indicate good meat supply, our farmers have little reason to worry over the prolongation of the pending incomprehensible "panic". It is folly to venture predictions as to the day of re-action, but a people who make their own food supplies are prepared to tuck their cotton money in their inside pockets, and can afford to wait patiently until the wheel that slipped a cog regains its adjustment.

—Charlotte News: The next suit, which will be taken up in the Superior Court, is that of Wiley Howard against the Seaboard Railway, 3 C's Company, in which the plaintiff asks for $30,000 damages for injuries received in a collision of a street car and an engine of the Seaboard at the Brevard street crossing in the Spring of 1907. Howard had an arm broken and suffered several other injuries in this collision, in which several others were hurt, and which has resulted in a number of suits for damages.

—Tarboro Southerner: Sunday, a barn and stables used by a tenant on N. J. Mayo's farm were destroyed by fire. The tenant's dwelling was also set fire to, but this, owing to timely discovery and prompt action was saved before much damage was done. Mr. Mayo believes that both buildings were set on fire by a negro who was mad or jealous of another. The circumstances bear him out. The barn was found burning on the inside, with the door locked and hours after the owner had gone away. It was the fire in this that attracted attention, but those who hurried to the scene saw that the kitchen, which was only a few yards away was also burning on the inside.

She Likes Good Things.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith of West Franklin Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at R. R. Bellamy's drug store, 25c.

Asheville, N. C.

The Payne Medicine Co., Lexington, Ky.

It gives me great pleasure to testify to the splendid success resulting from your work of advertising the Andes Great Remedies. The sales have been astounding and in an experience of 25 years I have never seen anything like it. That the remedies have great merit I am convinced from the uniformly favorable comment of the buying public.

I also wish to express my thorough appreciation of the uniform kindness and courtesy shown me by you in all our dealings. Wishing you abundant success, I remain,

Very truly yours,
GRANT'S PHARMACY,
Per Penrose Baldwin.

The price of Andes Medicines is within reach of all. Andes' Great Prescription retails for $1.00 per bottle, 3 for $2.50. Andes Great Oil that cures stiff or drawn joints or any form of Rheumatism—price 50c per bottle, 3 for $1.25.

We sell these Great Medicines and are having a good demand for them.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15.—The cotton market today was irregular within a comparatively narrow range, closing steady at a decline of 4 points on October with other months net unchanged to 2 points higher. Sales were estimated at 125,000 bales.

The opening was steady at an advance of 3 to 7 points in response to higher cables, but there was continued selling of the late months presumably for hedging purposes, while excellent weather and reports of rapid progress with ginning promoted realizing by recent Wall street buyers. Prices eased off in consequence, but steadied a point or two under the closing figures of the previous day and during the subsequent trading showed very little movement. October was relatively weak under selling by spot houses and offerings which some thought were intended to make a better December buying basis. A large part of the trading represented various switches or straddles by local professionals and the commission house business which was a feature in the markets of the earlier week was less in evidence. Exports for the day were very heavy—more than double the port receipts, and the spot markets were generally unchanged.

Receipts at the ports were 46,202 bales, against 54,696 last week and 42,215 last year; for the week 360,000 bales, against 340,922 last week and 275,752 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 8,624 bales, against 3,437 last year and at Houston 18,329 bales against 6,023 last year.

Spot cotton quiet; middling uplands 9.20; middling gulf 9.40; sales none.

Futures opened and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15.—The movement of dry goods appears to be enlarging. The call for spot goods is more active. In cotton goods prices are firmer and at moderate advances, the trading is still going on with converters, princters and some jobbers. Yarns are steady and a larger inquiry is noted. In mens wear houses the spot trade is large although individual orders are small. Raw silk is somewhat easier with purchases generally light.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15.—There was only a nominal stock market today after the brief executions of orders for foreign acount, and a sudden revival in the last half hour. Whatever impulse may account for the withdrawal from active operations of the strong financial element which has conducted the recent speculation it was evident today that with those operations subtracted nothing was left of the market. The attitude of reserve on their part may be due to unwillingness to encrouch further on money market supplies in the furtherance of a movement with the election still three weeks in the future. The immobility of prices became very marked today and there were few even of the most active stocks, which fluctuated over an extreme range of one point with a sudden rise at the end. Discussion of the Government finances came up in connection with the money market position. London was a source of some strength to the local market, both at the opening and in the closing spurt. Money lenders reported an increase in the demand for call loans, while some of the largest banks have practically withdrawn from that department. The result was the little flurry in call money rates today to 2 per cent. The buying of stocks, which began with the rise in call money, gave a suggestion of responsibility by the bears for recent selling of stocks. The upward impetus lasted until the closing.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value were $3,664,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today of stocks were 423,200 shares.

The Way of the Transgressor is Lard

The wise housewife specifies Cottolene every time in place of lard. Anyone with a particle of respect for his stomach would prefer a pure vegetable product to one made from the fat of a hog.

Cottolene is always pure; lard isn't.

Cottolene will make more palatable food than lard, and food that any stomach can digest with ease. Lard is a friend of indigestion.

You can prove every word we say by buying and trying a pail of Cottolene. All good grocers sell it; all the great cooking authorities of America recommend it.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

TAFT'S TOUR IN THE SOUTH

The First Day Spent in a Trip Through Kentucky.

LARGE CROWDS HEAR HIM

He Differentiates Kentuckians From Citizens Further to the South—Repeats His Reasons for His Southern Tour.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 15.—Acting on his declaration that "The South is a part of the Union and as such entitled to be considered in the presidential campaign, William H. Taft spent the day talking in the towns and cities of Kentucky.

Mr. Taft will be the first Republican Presidential candidate to carry his campaign into Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Virginia, which he will visit in his tour. His reception has proved of proverbial Southern hospitality. The crowds which greeted him at the dozen places in which he spoke today were large and enthusiastic.

At Lexington, where he addressed an immense audience he said:

"I don't feel like putting Kentucky in the Solid South, or talking to her citizens in the strain which may well be adopted toward the citizens of States further south. I feel as if Kentucky had largely placed herself in a position where we have a right to come to her and treat her as if she were a Republican State. She has a Republican Governor. She has a Republican Senator and she has a number of Republican Congressmen, and I hope she will have more. Assuming, therefore, that the prejudices and the traditions which affect States further south have but little weight here, I want to invite your attention to the question which presents itself to the unprejudiced voter in the next November election."

Mr. Taft today made reference to the government guaranty of bank deposits. On that subject at Lexington he said:

"Mr. Bryan has another porposition that is going to be the panacea for everything, and that is the guaranty of bank deposits. By that proposition he is going to make every respectable, honest banker become the security of anybody that desires to go into the banking business with the idea of getting a large line of deposits with a very small capital, and the result of that, I don't think, it takes a very clear headed business man to see."

The work of the day for Mr. Taft was begun early this morning at Huntington, W. Va., where he made it a point to emphasize that he regarded the State as much Republican territory as Pennsylvania or Ohio.

Then came the advent to Kentucky. He was greeted by enthusiastic crowds at Ashland, East Kentucky Junction, Olive Hill and Morehead. At the latter place he expressed his gratitude to the gathering, "for coming here and giving us the courage to believe that Republicanism is going to sweep south of the Ohio river and to give the South the position she ought to have in this Government."

The capital of the State, Frankfort, turned out en masse to see and hear the candidate. He spoke from the steps of the old Capitol building.

While he was speaking in a crowded hall at Shelbyville tonight there were persistent cries of Bryan. The Judge referred to the interruption pleasantly at first, but as it continued he declared: "It is just such instances as this which show why it is that the Democratic party never gets control of the Government. It has elements in it which lack the slightest sense of responsibility, decency or courtesy."

Marching clubs escorted, and red fire illuminated the way of the candidate from his train to the colliseum in Louisville tonight. His audience was treated to a discussion of the general issues, both by the candidate, by Senator William Alden Smith and by Leslie M. Shaw, former Secretary of the Treasury.

BOOK-MAKING TO BE ALLOWED

At the Latonia Races Despite Order of Racing Commission.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 15.—Bookmaking will be permitted, in defiance of the orders of the Kentucky racing commission, at the Fall meeting of the Latonia Jockey Club, which commences Monday, October 19th, the directors of the Jockey Club so deciding at a meeting held here this afternoon. It is expected that this action will bring on a clash with the State racing commission which has repeatedly declared in favor of the pari-mutual system of betting, and only yesterday refused the application of the jockey club for the permission to allow Book-making at Latonia. If the matter is taken to the court, not only the control of racing in Kentucky, but the future racing game in that State will be at stake. The racing commission is expected to apply for an injunction to restrain the Latonia directors from permitting bookmaking and the Latonia officials will probably meet the attack by fighting in the courts the stability and constitutionality of the law creating the racing commission.

BRYAN CLOSES NEBRASKA TOUR

Speaking to Democrats of His Old Congressional District.

TO FEAR OF NEBRASKA

Declares He Expects Larger Majority Than Twelve Years Ago—His Attack on Cannon—His Challenge to Republicans.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Plattsmouth, Neb., Oct. 15.—William Jennings Bryan closed his three days' speaking tour of his home State with a large meeting in this city tonight, and said he felt that Nebraska could be safely counted in the Democratic column by a larger majority than he received in 1896.

A large portion of the day was spent in his old congressional district, and the enthusiasm which had prevailed in his tour of the State was intensified by the fact that these people gave him his first political distinction and have followed him with increasing confidence as he fought his way up the ladder. Today they showed their affection for him by demonstrations at every station.

"My trip throughout the State was not planned because there was any doubt about Nebraska," he said tonight. "It was because these Nebraska Democrats have been so loyal to me that I was not willing to let the campaign pass without visiting them. The trip, however, has led us to raise our estimate on the size of the majority Nebraska will give. I am satisfied that our majority will be considerably more than it was in 1896. In no campaign in this State have I encountered such large and enthusiastic crowds, and the reports received from every precinct and every county show defections in the Republican ranks and consequent addition to our vote."

Speaking began early this morning and continued throughout the day. More than twenty stops were made. His addresses were more agressive than they have been during the week. At Tecumseh, he said of Speaker Cannon:

"It used to be said of a noted criminal lawyer that a burglar never entered a house to commit burglary without first making inquiry as to the health of this lawyer, and no man in Congress who plans to raid the American people does so without first getting a promise of recognization from Mr. Cannon, the Speaker of the House. He is backed by every predatory corporation in this country."

At Tecumseh he also denied that Mr. Roosevelt was the father of the policies which the reformers advocated. "Name a policy of President Roosevelt's that you want continued," he said, "and I will point to a policy that I advocated before President Roosevelt ever advocated it. Why don't you say that you want a Republican to continue Bryan's policies and not Roosevelt's policies?

In discussing the panic he said that Republicans were threatening a panic in case of his election. "There will be a panic in one family," he said, "and that will be the Taft family, for Mr. Taft's federal salary will be withdrawn for the first time in more than twenty years."

At Nebraska City he compared his meeting with that of eight years ago, and left with the chairman of the committee $5 to be presented to the campaign fund of the Republican committee if they would consent to carry the same banners in their parade that they carried at that time. At that time he predicted that the starch trust, which was being prosecuted under the State statute would be likely to close the factory at that place, and it was intimated that physical violence would be done him if he spoke in that city. "I told them then that I would denounce the trust even in the shadow of the starch factory," he said. "Where are the Republicans who mockingly wrote to me after the election and declaring that the shadow of the starch factory extended across the State? How far does the shadow reach? The factory is closed down; the machinery has been removed and the building is in the hands of a wrecking crew."

After his meeting in Plattsmouth tonight, Mr. Bryan took a train for Denver where he speaks tomorrow. He was jubilant over the outlook in his own State.

KERN AT TAMMANY.

Democratic Nominee Addresses Big Crowd—Asks Questions.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15.—"Should not the fact that men believe that a candidate for the Presidency, when elected, to violate the pledges made by him and his party be a most potent reason why honest and patriotic men should withhold their support from him and his cause?"

"Should the fact that a candidate for the Presidency is regarded as so honest as to be incapable of violating his platform pledge be an argument against his election?"

These questions put by John W. Kern, Democratic nominee for the vice presidency, to a crowd that filled every available foot of room in Tammany Hall tonight were answered by an outburst of shouting and cheering.

Mr. Kern was joined on the platform by Lieutenant Governor Chanler, the Democratic nominee for Governor New York.

Mr. Kern was introduced by William H. Sohmer, a prominent Tammany leader.

DEMOCRATIC FUNDS AND CONTRIBUTORS

Extended Statement of Contributions to National Campaign Made Public.

AMOUNT OVER $248,000

Chairman Mack Gives Out Official Data—Estimated That 50,000 People Have Contributed—Another Appeal For Funds.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15—The Democratic National committee, through Treasurer Herman Ridder, this morning gave out an extended statement of the Contributions to the Democratic National campaign fund up to and including October 9th, showing sums of and over $100. The statement also shows receipts and disbursements as follows:

Received from contributors of $100 and over	$ 90,712 33
Received from contributors under $100	115,355 22
Amount left over from Denver convention fund	42,500 00
Total	$248,567 55
Amount disbursed	$225,962 88
Balance on hand	22,604 67

The statement, which is signed by National Chairman Mack and Treasurer Ridder, says that 343 subscribers gave $100 or more and the smaller sums were from 25 cents up. It adds:

The number of contributors to the National committee fund is estimated at about 50,000 people and about $100,000 of the whole amount contributed came from the Democratic newspapers throughout the United States.

"It will be noticed from the foregoing statement that the cash balance is about $22,604. Supplies contracted for and undelivered, circulation of literature, the expense of headquarters in Chicago, New York and Denver, and the traveling and other expenses incident to our speaking campaign now under way, will make necessary an additional $100,000 to carry our campaign to a successful issue. We are confident that the people whom we are thus taking into our confidence will supply us with this additional sum and we earnestly urge a prompt and generous response.

Following are the contributions in individual sums of $100 or more from the States named:

New York, Oct. 15.—Herman Ridder, treasurer of the Democratic National committee announced today that next Tuesday afternoon he would give out the list of the additional contributors to the Democratic campaign fund from the 9th to the 17th of October.

Chicago, Oct. 15.—National Chairman Norman E. Mack tonight made public the sums of $100 and over which were received on October 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14th which amount to $12,556 from seventy contributors to the Democratic National campaign fund. These contributions were received by the committee after the first list, which was announced today in New York, was closed on October 9th.

SEVEN MEN KILLED.

Terrible Explosion at Lime Quarry Wrought Much Disaster.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Fort Collins, Collo.—Seven men are reported killed and twenty-three others injured, some fatally, as the result of a premature explosion at the Ingleside Lime Quarry 18 miles from here late today.

Foreman James McPherson is reported fatally injured.

All the injured were removed to the hospital at Fort Collins in a special train.

The blast went off in the face of forty men. Many of them were hurled 200 feet. The explosion was heard for miles. Ranchers and their wives for miles around rushed to the scenes and gave help to the injured.

BANK CASHIER SUICIDED.

Was $10,000 Short in His Accounts—Used a Shot Gun.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 15.—A special from Bradford, Arkansas, says:

Folowing the closing of the Bradford State Bank and the issuance of a warrant yesterday for the arrest of the cashier H. Drennan, who was alleged to be short in his accounts to the extent of $10,000, Drennan's dead body was found in the barn at his home today. The shot gun with which he evidently ended his life was found nearby.

HANGING AT FAYETTEVILLE.

Negro Who Murdered D. McEachern Pays Penalty For His Crime.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Fayetteville, Ga., Oct. 15.—Jim Bennett, a negro, was hanged here today for the murder of D. McEachern, a white man, last Seutember. Bennett was carried to the gallows on the coffin in which he was to be buried. The negro also shot Seaborn Adams, another white man, who attempted to disarm him after he had killed McEachern.

AFTER THE POWDER TRUST

Taking Testimony in Proceeding to Show Illegal Combination.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 15.—Further testimony, through which it was sought to establish the existence of an illegal combination of gunpowder manufacturers, was introduced today at a hearing held before special United States Commissioner Mahefey in connection with the investigation instituted by the Federal Department of Justice into the so-called powder trust. This action, directed by the Government against the E. I. Dupont, the de Nemours Powder Company and seventy-one other defendants, charges them with securing control of practically all the powder mills of the country and conducting them as one great concern in defiance of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The greater part of the time at today's hearing was taken up in placing on the records the "compendium of rules," and the "fundamental agreement," which governed the old gun powder trade association.

Those documents were produced by Alexis I. Dupont, secretary of the Dupont Company. The Government is endeavoring to establish the existence of a combination of powder manufacturers from 1872 to 1902.

Attorneys for the Dupont Company claim that such an association or trade agreement ceased to exist after the year 1902, when the present Dupon Company was organized and purchased the powder mills.

TROUBLE OVED MOONSHINING

One Farmer Fatally Shoots Another at Moore Station, S. C.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Spartanburg, S. C., Oct. 15.—G. Kirkingdoll was shot and probably fatally wounded by Elmore Wright, a farmer, at Moore Station, 12 miles south of here late today. Kirkingdoll has the contents of a shot gun loaded with buckshot in his breast. It is reported that the shooting was the result of the arrest of Kirkingdoll yesterday on the charge of moonshining. Wright, who was to appear as a witness, is said to have been fired at yesterday by Kirkingdoll and his son, and this shooting today was the equel.

For Sore Feet.
"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burns, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too for piles. Try it! Sold under uarantee at R. R. Bellamy's drug ore. 25c.
